

Introduction to Biblical Counselling

14-18 February 2011; 20-24 June 2011;
4-8 April 2011

Led by the CWR Counselling Team

Many people struggle with problems in their lives and need help to resolve them. The exciting thing is that people can be helped to move forward and discover the freedom to grow into all that God desires for them to be.

If you have a heart to help people, but are wondering how, then this five-day foundation course is ideal for you. You will be helped to reflect on your own life in the light of the teaching before using the principles to help others. This approach has transformed the lives of so many who have been on this course.

Key features

- The biblical basis for pastoral care and counselling
- Why problems develop
- How to deal with life's basic issues successfully
- A clear step-by-step process for counselling
- Developing basic counselling skills

Who is this course for?

Those looking for basic training for pastoral care, pastors and small-group leaders, those thinking of embarking on full counselling training, those who would find the training useful in their employment ... and many others.

Looking ahead

Having completed this course you may then like to take your training further with the Waverley Certificate of Christian Counselling or our new part-time BA degree programme in Counselling, validated by Roehampton University. For full details visit www.cwr.org.uk or call 01252 784731.
